

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF SPRINGFIELD, MO
*Women building better communities

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT

Rachel Fuhrman, 816.516.5505

Public Relations Chair

communications@jlspringfield.org

The Junior League of Springfield Now Accepting Applications for the Building Better Communities Scholarship

SPRINGFIELD, MO, October 5, 2021 – The Junior League of Springfield, MO is pleased to announce that applications are now being accepted for the Building Better Communities Scholarship. This scholarship is intended to help low-income, non-traditional, female students pursuing their education in programs eligible to receive a professional certification or license upon graduation.

One scholarship in the amount of $1,500 will be awarded in the fall of the 2021-2022 academic year. Funds will be paid directly to the designated institution and are to be restricted to tuition, books or lab fees.

As an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism and improving the community through effective action and leadership, the Junior League of Springfield is seeking applicants who strive to improve their education and make a difference in the community.

Eligibility Requirements (included but not limited to)

- Application and requirements completed by Friday, November 5, 2021.
- Female non-traditional student – defined as 22 years of age and above.
- Enrolled and/or accepted for the 2021-2022 academic year in a program that the student is eligible to receive a professional certification or license upon graduation.
- Financial need.
- Submit proof of enrollment or acceptance letter at an accredited institution.
- Resident of Springfield or surrounding communities.
- US citizen, US national or US permanent resident.
- Immediate family members of the Junior League of Springfield which includes New Members, Active and Sustainers as well as League Employees are not eligible to receive a League scholarship.

For more requirements and general scholarship information, please visit our webpage at www.jlspringfield.org/community/scholarships/. If you have further questions, please email jls@jlspringfield.org.

About the Junior League of Springfield

The Junior League of Springfield is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. The Junior League of Springfield reaches out to women of all races, religions and national origins who demonstrate an interest in and a commitment to voluntarism. Its purposes are exclusively educational and charitable. Since 1959, the Junior League of Springfield has contributed more than $4 million and more than 1.3 million hours of volunteer service to the Springfield community. For more information, please visit the Junior League of Springfield website at www.jlspringfield.org.