We gratefully acknowledge receipt of the articles listed below to the Junior League of Springfield's Plaid Door Resale Boutique. No goods or services were provided in consideration for the contribution. Contributions of goods are deductible for income tax purposes as allowed by the provisions of the IRS code. The IRS requires you, the donor, to place a fair market value on your donation. Fair market value is the price that the property would sell for on the open market. The price that buyers of resale items actually pay in resale clothing stores is an indication of the fair market value. Used clothing and other household items are usually worth far less than the price you paid for them. To assist you in evaluating the fair market value of your donated goods, we have attached a sample of prices currently being used in the Plaid Door. This list is only meant to inform and does not necessarily represent item value. The Plaid door will not be responsible for maintaining a copy of any donation forms. Please maintain a copy for your personal records.

League members may email this form along with a photograph of your donation to jlsdoc@gmail.com to ensure credit is received.

Plaid Door Fair Market Value 2017

The Plaid Door Resale Boutique or the Junior League of Springfield does not provide tax advice and we recommend you consult a professional tax advisor.

The Internal Revenue Service's require donors to assess their own value on goods donated. This guide is to help you determine the value of donations. All donations must be in good condition and remember these are only estimated values.
